REQUIRED FOR ALL APPEALS: Use this space to describe your special circumstances. Provide as much detail as possible (dates, amounts, etc.). Attach additional pages if needed. A Financial Aid Office team member will contact you at the email provided on the front of this form. Documents necessary to support your appeal will be requested at that time. Submission of this form and supporting materials does not guarantee an increase in need-based financial aid for the 2025-2026 academic year.

Voluntary changes of employment and expenses incurred by choice are not likely to result in additional need-based aid. We reserve the right to request any documents deemed necessary to complete our review. We will not review your appeal until all requested documents are received in our office. Please allow up to two weeks for our review once all requested materials have been submitted to our office.
